To Whom It May Concern:

As someone who has not only hired the Dooley Brothers, but also become a fan in the process, I feel more than capable of describing just what kind of experience one would receive when hiring the band. For the past several years, the Dooleys have been a staple of our summer concert series here at the Village of Brookfield. They have started off the series with a bang, providing a genuine good time that is always enjoyed by our community.

It is clear that the whole crowd – and not just the staff – love the Dooleys. In the one year we were unable to book them due to scheduling conflicts, we received many requests from both regular and occasional concertgoers that they return the following year. Needless to say, we have hired them every year since.

Besides the fan loyalty they have inspired, each concert they have performed has been an absolute delight. A concert with the Dooley Brothers will bring not only good music, but a good time as well. It is the kind of atmosphere that is not only family friendly, but will honestly entertain people of all age groups and all walks of life. The stories and camaraderie that the band brings along with their songs and instruments turns the performance from a simple concert to a unique experience that is both fun and relaxing.

A day with the Dooleys is one that will not soon be forgotten. They have been a huge success in our town and their performances are always eagerly awaited by our residents. Over the years, they have become a part of our tradition that we hope to continue for years to come. If you have not seen a Dooley Brothers show, it is definitely worth checking out.

I am sure that if you hire the Dooley Brothers for your event, you will not be disappointed.

Sincerely,
